CIRCULAR 32 OF 2014: Head of Accreditation back at work

The Council for Medical Schemes (CMS) hereby notifies all stakeholders that Mr Danie Kolver, Head of Accreditation at CMS, is back at work. He commenced duties on 23 June 2014.

The CMS would like to assure all stakeholders that the Accreditation unit will continue rendering an excellent service under the guidance of Danie Kolver. The Council would also like to extend its gratitude to Tebogo Maziya and Paresch Prema, who, despite being Head of Finance Supervision Unit and Benefits Management Unit respectively, collectively took on the demanding task of being Acting Head of Accreditation during the period of suspension.

The Accreditation Unit is responsible for assessing if stakeholders meet the conditions set out for accreditation by the Medical Schemes Act 131 of 1998, including whether applicants are fit and proper, have the necessary infrastructure and are financially sound. This includes accrediting brokers, administrators of medical schemes and managed care organisations. The Unit is also responsible for investigating complaints against accredited entities, developing standards, criteria and service levels for accredited entities. Furthermore Accreditation also ensures compliance by entities with conditions for accreditation and renders advisory services with regard to accreditation matters.
