Circular 38 of 2014: Invitation of CMS Annual Report Launch

The Council for Medical Schemes (CMS) cordially invites you to the launch of their 2013-2014 Annual Report.

This launch will feature presentations on how the CMS as regulator is discharging its duties as well as results of the latest industry research. The most comprehensive overview of the medical schemes industry in South Africa will be given.

Presentations include:

- How many medical schemes are registered in SA and how many beneficiaries they serve?
- The financial position and performance of medical schemes.
- What amounts were spent on healthcare by discipline?
- What are the most common conditions claimed for?
- Factors which are believed to be contributing to the escalating costs of the private healthcare sector.
- Governance of medical schemes, including an update on developments on Trustee remuneration guidelines.
