Press release 3 of 2014

Johannesburg, Wednesday 26 February 2014 The Council for Medical Schemes (CMS), an autonomous statutory body created by parliament to regulate medical schemes in South Africa, announced today that Mr T.B. Langa has resigned as Provisional Curator of Medshield Medical Scheme.

Mr Langa's resignation will come into effect as from 28 February 2014. The North Gauteng High court in Pretoria has appointed Dr. Tebogo Phaleng as Provisional Curator of Medshield Medical Scheme as from 1 March 2014.

As the new Provisional Curator of Medshield Medical Scheme, Dr. Phaleng's mandate will be to conduct and oversee elections for a new board of trustees for the scheme. This will ensure that Medshield Medical Scheme is governed by fit and proper trustees who will continue ensuring that the best interests of medical scheme members are at all times maintained.
