Press release 5 of 2015: CMS notification of surrender of accreditation by Jan le Roux as individual broker

The Council for Medical Schemes (CMS), regulator of the medical schemes industry, gives notice to the public that following a request by the CMS to Mr Jan le Roux to make submissions why his accreditation as an individual broker should not be suspended or withdrawn, Mr Le Roux surrendered his accreditation.

According to Mr Daniel Lehutjo, Acting Registrar and Chief Executive of the Council for Medical Schemes, Mr Jan le Roux has informed the CMS that he is no longer involved in the healthcare industry. "By reason of the surrender of his accreditation he is not permitted to perform broker services in the healthcare industry." If Mr le Roux or any company in which he is a shareholder or director seeks any accreditation under the Medical Schemes Act in future, he will have to establish that he is fit and proper to carry out any such role.

The CMS not only regulates medical schemes, it also accredits managed care organisations, administrators as well as brokers and brokerages who advise and market medical scheme membership.
