Report on Renaissance

Mr Mzi Nkonki, the curator of Renaissance Health Medical Scheme, made the following announcement yesterday:

“21 days have elapsed since Renaissance Health Medical Scheme was put under curatorship. The curator is confident that, with the support of the members, the scheme stands a good chance of regaining financial stability.

“The scheme will continue operating under curatorship, whilst it implements strategies aimed at protecting members’ interests and stabilising its finances.

“Your support and understanding, as members, will be highly appreciated in this regard.”
